

Natan Burr

Paramus, NJ

Nathan is an 8th grade language arts teacher and instructional technology coach at West Brook Middlefield in Paramus, NJ. He has taught language arts for 10 years at the middle school level and emphasizes reading and writing workshop and balanced-literacy in his practice. He is passionate about building community, social-emotional learning, and student-centered instruction. Nathan earned his Master of Arts in Educational Leadership from Ramapo College in New Jersey.