

Molly Lodes

St. Louis, Missouri

Molly is a passionate first-year teacher at a Title I school in St. Louis. With a heart for making a difference in the lives of her students, Molly is dedicated to creating engaging and inclusive learning environments that empower her students to reach their full potential. From brainstorming creative lesson plans to working closely with parents and colleagues, Molly is committed to making a positive impact in her community.