

Sarah Adashek

South Milwaukee, WI

Sarah is a 4th grade teacher at Rawson Elementary in South Milwaukee, Wisconsin. This is her 8th year teaching. Sarah truly loves teaching and making learning fun and engaging. Her passion for reading lies in matching each student with a text they love! She develops meaningful relations with each student and finds mirrors and windows for every child. She gets as excited as her students when new books are available and searches far and wide for amazing texts. She is always looking for potential new reads by diverse authors and centering characters with diverse backgrounds.
